Collective Bargaining Agreements

Section 132 of the Labour Relations Code requires unions and employers to file a copy of their collective agreement with the Director of Mediation Services.

When filing a collective agreement please include as much of the following information as possible.

- Date of ratification
- Number of employees covered by the collective agreement
- Classification with the largest number of employees
- ALRB certificate number(s) if available

It is important to note that if there are wage reopeners, or future calculated increases this information must be filed as well.

Collective agreements should be submitted electronically to cba.submissions@gov.ab.ca .

Bargaining Update is a monthly report that provides information about the unionized workforce, primarily in Alberta.

The settlement data reported in this issue of Bargaining Update is based on the collective agreement settlement information received by Mediation Services during the month of March.

In March 2016, Mediation Services received settlement information regarding 45 bargaining relationships encompassing 3,512 employees. There were 31 private sector and 14 public sector settlements, covering 2,687 and 825 employees respectively.

Highlights

City of Calgary
The City of Calgary requested the establishment of Compulsory Arbitration Board to settle the dispute with 1,496 firefighters represented by the International Association of Firefighters, Local 255. Arbitrator David Tettensor has been chosen by the parties to be the Chair of the Board.

City of Lethbridge
International Association of Firefighters, Local 237 represents approximately 162 firefighters, who have been operating without a collective agreement since July 2012. On March 10, 2016 the Compulsory Arbitration Board chaired by David Tettensor issued its award settling the dispute. The new collective agreement will expire on December 31, 2016.
